

National Indian Justice Center General Announcement

The Morris K. Udall Foundation has asked us to assist in identifying outstanding students in our area and encouraging them to apply for their Internship and/or Scholarship programs benefiting Native Americans. Students may apply for one or both of the programs below:

The Morris K. Udall Native American Congressional Internship program is a fully funded ten week summer internship in Washington, DC, for Native American and Alaska Native undergraduate, graduate, and law students. Interns work in congressional and agency offices where they have opportunities to research legislative issues important to tribal communities, network with public officials and tribal advocacy groups, and enhance their understanding of nation building and tribal self governance. The Foundation provides airfare, housing, per diem, and a $1,200 educational stipend. Applications must be received by January 29, 2010.

The Morris K. Udall Scholarship program awards $5,000 merit based scholarships for college sophomores and juniors seeking a career in tribal health, tribal public policy, or the environment. Scholars participate in a five day Orientation in Tucson, AZ, to learn more about tribal and environmental issues through discussions with experts, their peers, and members of the Udall family. Applications must be submitted through a Udall Faculty Representative at the student's college or university. More information about Faculty Representatives can be found on the Udall website. The application deadline is March 2, 2010.

For more information, visit the Foundation website at <http://www.udall.gov>. Interested students may contact them directly by email or phone. For the Scholarship Program, there are Faculty Representatives on most of the colleges and universities in the OSU TTAP and other TTAP service areas. Those for our area Land Grant and Flagship Universities are as follows:
